

The Faculty welcomes:

Prof. Dr. Allison McCulloch

Sending institution:

Brandon University, Canada

Duration of stay:

from 07/04/2025 to 25/04/2025

Invited by:

Professorship of International Politics / Prof. Stahl

Personal data:

Professor Allison McCulloch is Professor of Political Science at Brandon University in Canada. Her research considers the politics of ethnically divided societies, peace processes and democratization in post-conflict states.

Current research focus:

She is interested in the processes and institutions that facilitate democracy, security and stability in post-conflict settings, with a focus on power-sharing arrangements. She is currently a principal investigator on a Open Research Area 7/SSHRC grant on Citizen Inclusion in Power-Sharing Settlements.

Public lecture:

Constitutionalism amid Crisis: Adopting and Adapting Power-Sharing Settlements

lecture takes place:

23/4/25

We hope our guest is going to have a nice and enriching stay at our faculty. Moreover, we are thankful for the visit and commitment.