

HABITABILITY in the Global South

Winter Term 2026/2027

Interdisciplinary Public Lecture Series on Sustainability

Every 2nd Wednesday from 6 to 8 p.m. at Innstraße 25, Philosophicum Lecture Hall 3

Nov 4, 2026

Wendy Harcourt, Erasmus University Rotterdam

Turtle tales: learning otherwise
habitability in the Global South

Dec 16, 2026

Isabella Radhuber, University of Vienna
Inhabiting Places During Extreme Weather: Risk-Affected
Communities' Everyday
Experiences of How Planetary Health Is Politically Shaped

Nov 18, 2026

Tina Beuchelt, University of Bonn

Whose Habitable Future?
Equity, Justice, and the Politics of Land and Food System Transformation

Jan 13, 2027

Angefragt: Sarah Vigil, Stockholm
Habitability for a connected, unequal and changing world

Dec 2, 2026

Ali Emre Benli, University of Vienna
Moral Conceptions of climate refugees

Jan 27, 2027

Sule Egya, University of Duisburg-Essen
Planetary Habitability in African Oral Culture

Organisation: Martina Padmanabhan (Chair of Critical Development Studies) & Stefanie Wehner (Stabstelle Klimaschutz)
Scan this QR code to learn more about the specific topics, the speakers, and background information on the lecture series.
Co-financed by funds for the promotion of student projects.
Contact: nachhaltigkeit@uni-passau.de